

Change your life. Create a legacy.

“Deal with yourself as a individual, worthy of respect and make everyone else deal with you the same way.”

-- Nikki Giovanni

HBCU alum and famed poet, Nikki Giovanni, is a prime example of what you can achieve when you bet on yourself and blaze a path for others.

As a proud alum of Fisk University, she decided to overcome daunting statistics in the early 1960's to become an influential member in the black community.

Did you know:

- HBCUs were severely endangered during the pandemic, yet continue to strengthen all communities.
- HBCUs account for over $14 billion of annual economic impact.
- Of all U.S. black professionals, 40% of Congress, 50% of teachers, 70% of doctor and 80 of judges are HBCU graduates.

So this begs the question...

Are you ready to change your life?

Your legacy awaits.
